Pastor Jeff Joyce — Christ to every community.

As the crisp autumn air settles across our county and the leaves turn vibrant shades of gold and crimson, we are reminded of God's faithful hand in changing seasons. Ecclesiastes reminds us that there is a time for every matter under heaven. This Fall has been a remarkable season of harvest, fellowship, and active service for the churches of the Randolph Baptist Association as we labor together in the Gospel fields.

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever." — Psalm 107:1

In this season of Thanksgiving, our hearts overflow with gratitude for what God is accomplishing through our network of churches. True gratitude is never passive; it moves us outward. When we reflect on His enduring mercy, we are compelled to serve our neighbors, lift up our community in prayer, and share the profound hope we have in Christ. May our thankfulness this autumn translate into bold, hands-on ministry.

REACH RANDOLPH WEEKEND IMPACT

Our recent Reach Randolph weekend was a powerful testament to what happens when believers step outside the walls of the church building to serve in unity. We praise God for an incredible turnout and tangible expressions of Christ's love across our region:

- Participation: Nearly 100 dedicated participants were mobilized across multiple service sites.
- Prayer Coverage: 2 focused, powerful times of corporate prayer anchoring our weekend efforts.
- Sleep in Heavenly Peace: 100 custom beds fully constructed and finished to provide children safe sleep.
- Retirement Communities: Over 250 residents and staff at both Terra Bella and Cross Road were fed, visited, and blessed through special programs.

RBA ANNUAL MEETING: WORSHIP, PLANNING & FORWARD MOMENTUM

The recent RBA Annual Meeting served as a wonderful, encouraging time of worship and cooperative planning. We were blessed as the worship team from Cross Road and guest speaker Pastor Emeritus Steve Scoggins of First Baptist Church, Hendersonville, led us in uplifting worship and inspiring focus on Luke 15, and not becoming the pharisaical prodigals' brother.

During our business sessions, we joyfully placed new officers, team leaders, and committee members into service for the upcoming year. Furthermore, messengers approved a forward-thinking new budget incorporating a strategic plan for resourcing our churches through dedicated ministry grants and updated, high-quality ministry tools, ensuring our congregations are fully equipped for effective ministry ahead.
